Our commitment to the principles of the Modern Slavery Act 2015

Inpress Precision Ltd is committed to the principles of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and the abolition of modern slavery and human trafficking.

As an equal opportunities employer, Inpress is committed to creating and ensuring a non-discriminatory and respectful working environment for our employees. We want all our staff to feel confident that they can expose wrongdoing without any risk to themselves.

Our recruitment and people management processes are designed to ensure that all prospective employees are legally entitled to work in the UK and to safeguard employees from any abuse or coercion.

We do not enter into business with any organisation, in the UK or abroad, which knowingly supports or is found to be involved in slavery, servitude and forced or compulsory labour.

Our obligations under the Modern Slavery Act is limited to internal actions and supplier assessment, as we currently do not meet the turnover requirements to require us to publish a formal statement.

Our supply chain

Due to the nature of our business, we assess ourselves to have a low risk of modern slavery in our business and supply chains.

Our supply chains are limited and we procure goods and services from a restricted range of UK and overseas suppliers.

Our supplier evaluation process assesses existing and potential suppliers of critical goods and services
